

Faculty Addictions Psychiatrist
Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences
Northwestern University, Feinberg School of Medicine

The Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences is seeking a full-time psychiatrist to join the faculty of a strong, multidisciplinary program in a medical center academic department. The candidate will join a rich, collaborative environment with other clinicians and scientists in the Feinberg School of Medicine and throughout the University. We are expanding our clinical and teaching services in the areas of inpatient care, outpatient care, and psychosomatic and integrated medicine. The selected candidate will have a strong clinical background with experience in the diagnosis and treatment of a variety of mental disorders, and will specialize in Addictions Psychiatry. The selected candidate will also have board certification in general psychiatry. This position will be a full-time continuing appointment with the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor in the non-tenure track. Start date is negotiable. Position will remain open until filled. Salary will be commensurate with experience. To guarantee consideration, please send all applications by May 1, 2017.

Please send CV and cover letter with reference #29031 to: John Franklin, MD, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, 446 E. Ontario, Suite 7-200, Chicago, Illinois 60611 c/o Alexis Puzon, Business Coordinator or via email in a Word or PDF format to Alexis Puzon apuzon@nm.org.

Northwestern University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer of all protected classes, including veterans and individuals with disabilities. Women, racial and ethnic minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply. Hiring is contingent upon eligibility to work in the United States.