

Faculty Psychiatrist
Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences
Northwestern University, Feinberg School of Medicine

The Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences is seeking a full-time psychiatrist to join the faculty of a strong, multidisciplinary program in a medical center academic department. The candidate will join a rich, collaborative environment with other clinicians and scientists in the Feinberg School of Medicine and throughout the University. We are expanding our clinical and teaching services in the areas of inpatient care, outpatient care, and psychosomatic and integrated medicine. This position will be a full-time continuing appointment with the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor in the non-tenure Clinician-Educator track.

The selected candidate will have a strong clinical background with experience in the diagnosis and treatment of a variety of mental disorders, and will specialize in Complex and Treatment Resistant Depression. The selected candidate will also have board certification in general psychiatry.

The start date is negotiable. Position will remain open until filled. Salary will be commensurate with experience. To guarantee consideration, please send all applications by November 1, 2017.
