

Psychosomatic Psychiatrist – Assistant/Associate Professor

Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences

Northwestern University, Feinberg School of Medicine

The Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine seeks a full time Psychosomatic Psychiatrist at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor on the non-tenure track. Responsibilities include working in our Psychosomatic Medicine Consultation-Liaison Division and ACGME approved fellowship, in an urban, tertiary care medical center. Our academic and dynamic service includes teaching of trainees, including psychosomatic fellows, residents and medical students. Outpatient integrated care opportunities are available, and research interests are encouraged.

Qualified candidates will have their M.D., be board certified in psychiatry, and board certified/eligible in psychosomatic medicine. Position will remain open until filled. Start date is negotiable. Salary is commensurate with experience.

Please send CV and Cover Letter addressed to Lisa Rosenthal, MD, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, 446 E. Ontario, Suite 7-200, Chicago, Illinois 60611 c/o Alexis Puzon, Business Coordinator or via email in a Word or PDF format to Alexis Puzon apuzon@nm.org. Please include the job opening reference number #30331 in your application. To guarantee consideration, please send all applications by November 1, 2017.

Northwestern University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer of all protected classes, including veterans and individuals with disabilities. Women, racial and ethnic minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply. Hiring is contingent upon eligibility to work in the United States.