

Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences

Volume 3 Issue 1
Jan 5, 2015

New Appointments

Secondary Appointment

Kathryn Macapagal, PhD (MED- Medical Social Sciences) Dr. Macapagal will be working with Dr. Mark Reinecke in the Clinical Psychology Division. She will be overseeing the research training rotation for clinical psychology residents in the LGBTQ Health Psychology track, supervise clinical research and participate in the administration of the psychology internship program.

Volunteer

Darryl Pure, PhD, Lecturer. Dr. Pure will be working with Dr. Joan Anzia and lecture on group psychotherapy to our department's residents.

News and Media

Dr. Sheehan Fisher was awarded the Dixon Translational Research Grant.

Dr. Katherine Wisner is quoted in The Conversation-- bringing academic expertise to breaking news. Pregnant women must be studied too! <http://theconversation.com/pregnant-women-must-be-studied-too-32476>

Grants

Herbert Y Meltzer, MD (PI); Sponsor: Dainippon Sumitomo Pharma Co., Ltd; Project title: Use of the Novel Object Recognition (NOR) Task to Test the Ability of Antipsychotic Drugs and Specific Pharmacologic Regimens to Prevent or Reverse a Sub-Chronic Phencyclidine (PCP)-induced Deficit in Memory in Rats and to Study the Effect of PCP and Treatments on the Efflux of Brain Dopamine and Acetylcholine Using Microdialysis; Project period: 12/13/11 - 12/13/16

Herbert Y Meltzer, MD (PI); Sponsor: American Foundation for Suicide Prevention; Project Title: Suicide Risk Genes in Schizophrenia Using GWAS and Clozapine Effects on Signaling Mechanisms; Project period: 10/1/14 - 9/30/15

Presentations

Evelyn Perkins, RN, MS, PMH-BC, NE-BC: Design and Implementation of an Alternative to Discipline Program for Nurses with Substance Use Disorders. Nov 2014. International Nursing Administration Research Conference, Dallas, Texas.