

PhD Program in Clinical Psychology

Student Admissions, Outcomes, and Other Data

The PhD program in Clinical Psychology at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine is accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA). For further information about APA accreditation or specific information about the accreditation status of our doctoral program please contact:

Jacqueline Remondet Wall, PhD Director, Office of Program Consultation and Accreditation American Psychological Association 750 First Street, NE Washington, DC 20002-4242 202-336-5979, <http://www.apa.org/ed/accreditation>

The Committee on Accreditation at APA requires that accredited programs provide the following data to the public:

- Time to completion, from admission to graduation
- Program costs
- Internship success rates
- Attrition rates
- Licensure rates

The Clinical Psychological Doctoral Program provides this minimal information necessary to fulfill this requirement.

We also provide additional information consistent with our membership in the Council of University Directors of Clinical Psychology (<http://cudcp.wildapricot.org/>).

Please note that the information and data provided below are based on the past 10 years, unless otherwise noted.
